

ABOUT US:

The congregation of Dovercourt Baptist Church wanted to make a contribution to their neighbourhood and believed that the establishment of a retirement community would be a lasting legacy. New Horizons Tower has become that legacy as one of the City's well established not-for-profit senior housing providers. Operating since 1974 as a charitable organization we are committed to reinvest in the community we serve, to enhance and enrich the lives of seniors who choose to live in the heart of Bloordale Village. From gracious dining to new suites and lounges, residents are enjoying the new management and upgrades found at 1140 Bloor Street West.

There is new life at New Horizons Tower.

Since 1974 New Horizons Tower has been serving seniors in the Bloordale Village area. Today New Horizons Tower, along with the Bloor Street West neighbourhood is undergoing significant update and modernization.

We invite you to join this vibrant seniors community in the heart of the City.

At New Horizons Tower, we provide flexible accommodation and services just for you.

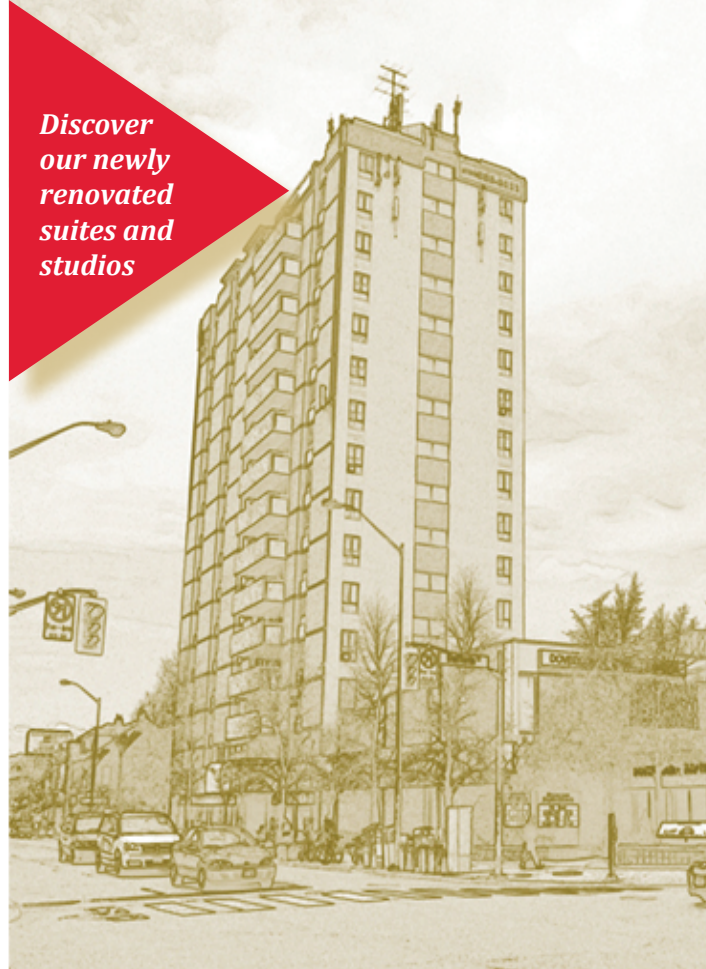

Call us today.

We will be delighted to serve you.

We love the new menu with more choices than ever – Bloor Street Dining has never been so fresh!
